Let us confess our sins against God.

Officiant and People, together

God of all mercy,

we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Officiant says

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Lessons

First Reading

Ephesians 1:15-23

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Canticle

Canticle J: A Song of Judith

Judith 16:13-16

I will sing a new song to my God, *

for you are great and glorious, wonderful in strength, invincible.

Let the whole creation serve you, *

for you spoke and all things came into being.

You sent your breath and it formed them, *

no one is able to resist your voice.

Mountains and seas are stirred to their depths, *

rocks melt like wax at your presence.

But to those who fear you, *

you continue to show mercy.

No sacrifice, however fragrant, can please you, *

but whoever fears the Lord shall stand in your sight for ever.

Praise to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

Second Reading

Matthew 25: 31-46

A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said, "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’ Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’ Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’ And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Reflection

The Rev. David Erickson

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

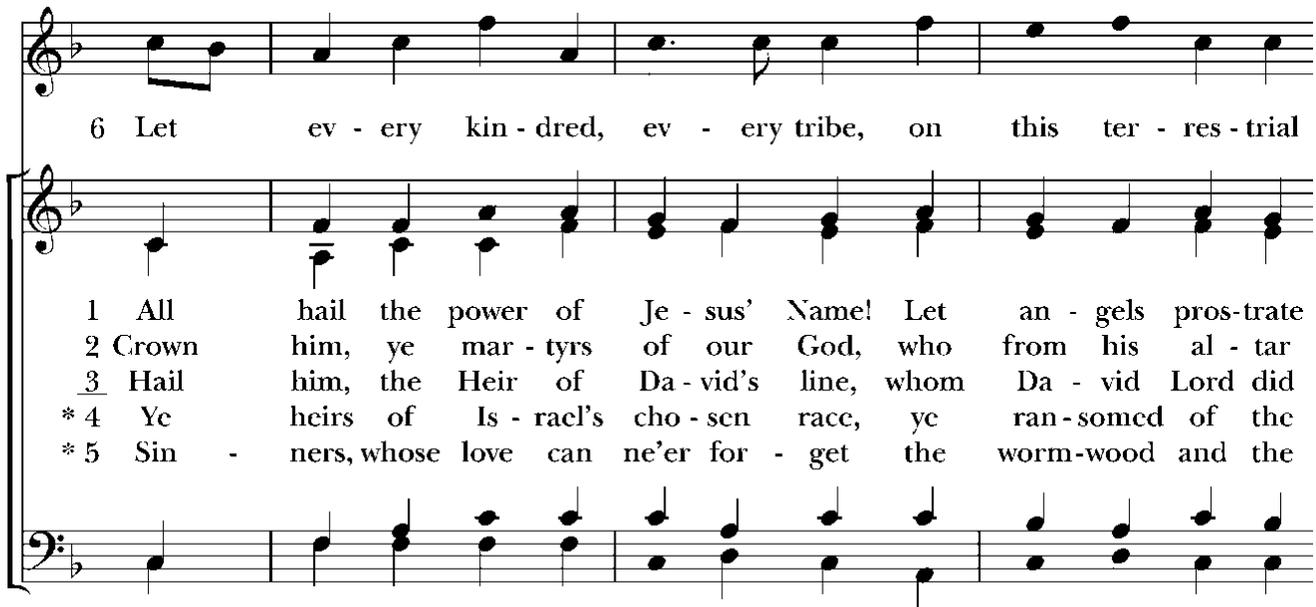

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer For Stewardship Ingathering

Gracious and Loving God, you call us to be stewards of your abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to us. Help us to always use your gifts wisely and teach us to share them bountifully. We thank for this community of St. Mary's and their generosity during this stewardship season. Send the Holy Spirit to sustain our hope and to work through us, bringing your message of love to those we encounter in our lives. May our faithful stewardship bear witness to the love of Jesus Christ in all that we do. We pray with grateful hearts to you, the source of all gifts. Amen.

Prayer For Our Nation

Grant, O God, that your holy and life-giving Spirit may so move every human heart and especially the hearts of the people of this land, that barriers which divide us may crumble, suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed, we may live in justice and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers and Intercessions

Let us pray to our Creator through Christ, who is our light and life, saying "Christ have mercy."

Holy God, your Christ is acclaimed as Savior and Good Shepherd: look in mercy on your Church. For all ministers and for all the people of God, let us pray.

Christ have mercy.

Holy God, your Christ, through whom new life came into being, for our sake emptied himself: look in mercy on the afflicted, the marginalized, the needy, and the suffering. For our parishioners, relatives, and friends (N), let us pray.

Christ have mercy.

Holy God, your Christ is the one in whom faithful servants find their peace: look in mercy on the departed, that they may share in your eternal kingdom. For (N.), let us pray.

Christ have mercy.

Holy God, your Christ brings the ways of justice to the world and all your creation. For our global concerns, (N.) let us pray.

Christ have mercy.

Holy God, your Christ taught us to take joy in earthly pleasures that demonstrate your great love for us. For our thanksgivings, (N.) let us pray.

Christ have mercy.

Almighty God hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The General Thanksgiving

Accept, O Lord, our thanks and praise for all you have done for us.

We thank you for the splendor of the whole creation, for the beauty of this world, for the wonder of life, and for the mystery of love.

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side.

We thank you for setting us tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us.

We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone. Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ;
for the truth of his word and the example of his life;

for his steadfast obedience,
by which he overcame temptation;
for his dying, through which he overcame death;
for his rising to life again,
in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit,
that we may know Christ and make him known;
and through him, at all times and in all places,
may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

Musical Offering

Te Deum - Plainchant

We praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud : the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.

To thee Cherubim and Seraphim : continually do cry,

Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles : praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge thee;

The Father : of an infinite Majesty;

Thine honourable, true : and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death :

 thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants :

 whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

Concluding Versicle

Let us go forth in the name of God.

Thanks be to God.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And may God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever. Amen.

Concluding Sentence

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen. Ephesians 3:20, 21

OUTDOOR IN-PERSON WORSHIP GATHERINGS

St. Mary's is offering the opportunity to worship in small groups for Morning Prayer on Sundays. The service will be led by a layperson and, in keeping with prevailing health guidelines, there is no singing/chanting and no group recitations of any part of the service. This is not a Eucharist service. Participants have greatly appreciated the opportunity to pray and reflect on scripture together. We hope you will consider, if you are comfortable, joining one of these groups in worship. Details as to where the groups will meet and at what time can be found on our in-person worship service registration website HERE. Please register by 2:00 p.m. on Friday for that Sunday's service.

Safety precautions will need to be maintained, which currently includes: social distancing, masks, no-touch/electronic bulletins (that will be posted on our website) and group leaders will keep attendance records of those who attend. Our virtual gatherings for Morning Prayer and Coffee Hour will also continue on Sundays!

If the air quality in your location exceeds 100 Air Quality Index (AQI). We will inform registered participants via email one hour before the event to let them know the event must be cancelled.

SPECIAL VIRTUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE PREMIERING 10 A.M., THANKSGIVING DAY

St. Mary's will offer a special, prerecorded, Thanksgiving worship service on Thanksgiving Day. The service will premiere at 10 a.m. that day, but we hope that St. Mary's parishioners and friends will watch it at whatever time is best for your Thanksgiving celebration. And yes, the service will include a recording of the St. Mary's choir singing "For the Beauty of the Earth."

2020 VIRTUAL GIVING TREE

We are excited to invite your participation in a virtual Giving Tree this year, to provide either fleece jackets or towel sets to over 70 residents of a supportive housing program of the Episcopal Community Services. Get all the details HERE, including a link to select the wrapped gift you will provide. There are LOTS of drop off options between November 22 and December 6th. Don't wait! Choose your gift and get it back to us in time to continue the strong St. Mary's tradition of making someone's Christmas a more joyful one through the Giving Tree.

THE VIA ADVENT: ADVENT DAILY MEDITATION READINGS (STARTING NOV. 27)

St. Mary's is excited to invite all parishioners to join in a parish wide Advent journey through the book, The Via Advent, by Shawn Small. The Via Advent is a celebration both of the birth of Christ and of those individuals whose faithfulness, patient supplication, and obedience to the high calling of God was so wonderfully rewarded. Presented to us in the context of their history and in the fullness of their humanity, the author invites the reader to participate in the discovery of the Messiah through the lens of those whose lives intersected so dramatically with the great unveiling.

We have 100 copies of the book available at no cost to those who wish to join us on this journey. Books will be available at our in-person worship gatherings starting Nov.

22nd. You may also email Ashley Ryan at ashley@smvsf.org to request a copy of the book and we will get one to you! The ebook version is also available on amazon.com and it best read on a color tablet.

We will be talking about our experience on the Via Advent at our coffee hour after our Advent services, and Rev. David will be offering a daily 3-5 minute recorded reflection every day during Advent on our website and youtube page.

We hope you will join us in this communal discovery of God's graciousness in being born among us as one of us!

ON #GIVINGTUESDAY, GIVE TO ST. MARY'S

GivingTuesday, a global initiative, was created to set aside a day that encourages people to give, collaborate, celebrate generosity and to take part in strengthening our communities and the world. GivingTuesday is held annually on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, this year on Tuesday, Dec. 1. What better day to make a financial gift to St. Mary's or to make that pledge to St. Mary's annual stewardship campaign that you have been meaning to do? Donations may be made at <https://smvsf.org/donation> or by contacting The Rev. David Erickson at david@smvsf.org. As the Gospel of Matthew says, "...freely you have received; freely give." Take part on Dec. 1 in this season of giving by expressing your response to God's bountiful grace through a donation to St. Mary's.

ANNUAL APPEAL VIDEO WITNESSES:
REV. HEATHER & REV. DAVID ERICKSON

We hope you enjoy this short video linked HERE in which Rev. Heather & Rev. David Erickson share their hope for St. Mary's and why they choose to support God's mission here thorough a financial pledge.

HOPE AND THE HOLY SPIRIT:

ST. MARY'S ANNUAL APPEAL 2021

Even in the midst of these unprecedented times, The Holy Spirit is present sustaining us and inspiring us to be witnesses of Christ's hope for the world. Now, St. Mary's needs your partnership in continuing to be an Instrument of God's grace in the world. We humbly ask that you prayerfully consider making a meaningful pledge towards the 2021 annual campaign. Pledge packets were recently mailed out. If you did not receive one, or if you have any questions about pledging, please contact Rev. David at david@smvsf.org. Pledge cards may be returned to the church via the mail or you may make a pledge at <https://smvsf.org/donation>.

NOTE FROM THE FINANCE OFFICE

The Finance Team requests that parishioners use the memo line on all checks to indicate the purpose of their donation -- for example 2020 pledge payment or 2021 pledge payment or any other designation such as Altar Flowers, Christmas Donation or any other purpose. The Finance Team sincerely thanks everyone who has responded to the request to complete pledge payments before the December rush!

OUTREACH GRANT COMMITTEE

The members of the Episcopal Church of St. Mary the Virgin in San Francisco raise money each year through a special Tidings of Comfort and Joy fundraiser. These funds are distributed to Bay Area based non-profit organizations that serve disadvantaged and under-served populations in the Bay Area. Special consideration is given to organizations with connections to St. Mary the Virgin Church and/or the Episcopal Diocese of California.

We generally fund specific projects where we can see that our grants will make a difference. Individual grants are typically between $1,000- $4,000 and will be distributed by the end of February. Deadline to apply is December 1. If you know of any organizations that wish to be considered, please go to smvsf.org, Community tab, Grant Application for more details and to apply. Please contact Laura Wharton at grantteam@smvsf.org with any questions.
