The Lessons

First Reading

Numbers 11:24-30

The people are seated.

A Reading from the Book of Numbers.

Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.

Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, stop them!" But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!" And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Acts 2:1-21

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Veni Sancte Spiritus, veni, O come, Holy Spirit come.

Come and stir our hearts with your wind, come and warm our hearts with your fire,

Sequence Hymn (9:00 & 11:00 a.m.)

Hymnal, #504

Come, Holy Ghost, Our Souls Inspire

The people stand.

The Holy Gospel

John 20:19-23

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

The Gospel of our Savior.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. David Erickson

The people are seated.

The Nicene Creed

The people stand.

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers Of The People

In faith, we pray to God who moves and flows, breathing Divine Love over all of creation.

By your Spirit you gave birth to the Church, enlighten our ministers and ourselves with visions and dreams that align with yours. Jolt us from any complacency that may douse flames of conviction to action. Holy Spirit, fire us with your love.

Restore to wholeness whatever is broken by human shortcomings, in our lives, in our nation and in the world. We pray especially for accord and stability for the people of Sudan, Venezuela, Ukraine and all lands that seek peace. Lead in the ways of truth and love. Holy Spirit, transform us with hope.

Transform languishing into joy, anxieties into serenity, despair into hope as we pray for those who suffer from any distress or illness, and for those who have requested our prayers, including (N.). Infuse their lives with your healing presence. Holy Spirit, heal us with your goodness.

Welcome into your heavenly realm those who have died and give comfort to all those who mourn. We especially pray of Uvalde on this anniversary of school shootings in their community and for ones we hold close in our hearts including (N.) Embrace them with your abiding presence. Holy Spirit, comfort us with your light.

Shape our downtrodden spirits into those that are on fire to care for reinvigorating the wholeness of God's creation. Renew its fragile beauty. We especially pray for those in Guam and in those in Italy afflicted by catastrophic flooding. Holy Spirit, fill us with grace.

Fill our hearts with gratitude for the many blessings and graces that enrich our lives. Remind us that all good gifts come from you. Holy Spirit, uplift us with joy.

The Celebrant concludes the prayers with the following Collect.

Creator God and Giver of Life, receive our prayers; hear our hearts' deep yearnings, yet to be formed by words. Give us the courage to surrender to you, all that we are and have yet to become, to the transforming motion of your Holy Spirit, and carry out through us your work of new creation. This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, the Risen and Living One. Amen.

The Peace

All stand.

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

The Ministers and the People share the peace of Christ with one another.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Sentence

The Celebrant says

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:2

Offertory Anthem (9:00 & 11:00 a.m.)

Draw us in the Spirit's Tether

Harrold Friedell (1905-1958)

at 9:00, sung by St. Mary's Youth Choir at 11:00, sung by St. Mary's Parish Choir

Draw us in the Spirit's tether,

For when humbly in Your name

Two or three are met together,

You are in the midst of them;

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Touch we now Your garment's hem.

As disciples used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
So now bind our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of You,
That by caring, helping, giving,
We may be disciples true.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
We will serve with faith anew.

-Percy Dreamer

Hymn At The Presentation (9:00 & 11:00 a.m.)

Hymnal, #333

Now the Silence
The people stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the stewards of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your Eternal Word, born of your servant Mary, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace. Christ has reconciled us by his blood. Christ has redeemed us by his grace.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus & Benedictus

at 8:00 a.m.: the following is said.

at 9:00 & 11:00 a.m.: the following is sung.

The musical score is written on five staves of music. The lyrics are: Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

And so, Almighty God, we who have been redeemed by Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the body and Blood of Christ our Savior.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection, as we look for his coming again in glory.

God of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob, Leah, and Rachel God and Father of our Savior Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom,

the power, and the glory are yours,

forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking Of The Bread

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Agnus Dei (9:00 & 11:00 a.m.)

Je - sus, Lamb of God: Have mer - cy on us. Je - sus, bear - er of our sins: Have mer - cy

The Youth Mission Trip to Kenya Needs Your Participation!

This summer, on June 19, 14 youth and 3 adults (including 3 participants from Christ Church, Los Altos) will be traveling all the way to Kenya to serve at the Nambale Magnet School. The school serves over 400 pre-K - 8th graders from one of the poorest parts of the world, and we are very excited to continue to build a connection between the school and our parish. As always, we encourage all of the people of St. Mary's to participate in the trip by supporting the trip financially. We have enough raised so far to get us all there, but now we need to fundraise to get everyone back. There will be different fundraisers over the next few weeks, and we are looking for donations big and small. You can donate via the church website (there is a field for Mission Trip donations), via check (make the check out to "The Episcopal Church of St. Mary the Virgin" and write "Youth Mission Trip" on the memo line), and/or via cash donation in the courtyard on Sundays. A trip this significant comes with more costs than usual - including a few travelers in need of financial assistance - so please be generous! Thank you for your support!
