 7. you a - lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spi - rit, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

The Collect Of The Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer For Pride Sunday

Holy Wisdom, in your loving kindness you created humanity as part of a world beautiful beyond our imagining. Help us to celebrate the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender people who work for healing of this world. Guide the leaders and people of this land, and of all nations, so that respect for the complexity and diversity of creation might bring equality and justice to all people and lands. We ask this in the name of the undivided Trinity, our Creator, Redeemer and Comforter. Amen.

First Reading

1 Samuel 17:57--18:5, 10-16

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

On David's return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

When David had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house. Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved.

The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; and Saul threw the spear, for he thought, "I will pin David to the wall." But David eluded him twice.

Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul. So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and David marched out and came in, leading the army. David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him. When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David; for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,

“At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

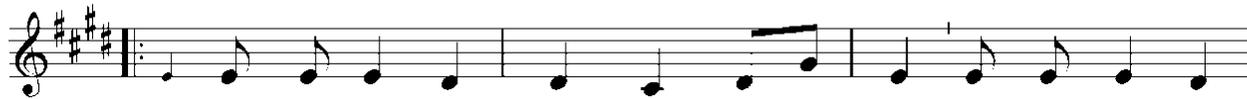

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mark 4:35-41

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?" And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

The Gospel of our Savior.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Reflection

The Rev. Marguerite Judson

The Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers Of The People

We offer our prayers this day in celebration of who we are, as people created in the image of God and all sojourners. In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, responding in the words of Harvey Milk that “Hope will never be silent.”

Guide and direct your holy Church; fill it with love and truth; and grant it unity and the courage to be a vocal and compassionate advocate for all people, regardless of race, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or immigration status. God of mercy,
May hope never be silent.

Inspire us to end the divisions and inequalities that scar God’s creation, particularly the barriers to freedom and civil rights caused by sexual orientation and gender identity; that all, formed in God’s image, may have equality in the pursuit of the blessings of creation. We pray for(N.). God of love,
May hope never be silent.

Guide the leaders of this land and of all nations and tribes, that respect for the complexity and diversity of creation will result in solidarity, equality and inclusiveness throughout the world. God of justice,
May hope never be silent.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, and spirit, and those who care for them and love them. Give them courage to persevere and bring them the joy of salvation. We pray for those who have asked for our prayers, especially for (N.). God of healing,

May hope never be silent.

We commend to you all who have died, especially for (N.). We also pray for those who died from HIV/AIDS, from hate crimes and from suicide and for others we name either aloud or in our hearts. May your will for them be fulfilled, joining all your saints in the eternal kingdom. God of mercy,

May hope never be silent.

Bless all who lack understanding of and express insensitivity to the LGBTQ struggles; grant us strength to love them. And bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, we especially give thanks for (N.). God of wisdom,

May hope never be silent.

Holy Wisdom, in your loving kindness you created and restored us when we were lost; hear our prayers and inspire us with your truth, that we may love you with our whole minds and never silence the hope that your resurrection brings to our hearts and our lives, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen.

Greeting And Announcements

A Prayer For The Youth Mission Trip

Holy One who transcends all distances, we send our young people and their mentors on this mission trip, entrusting them to your care. We ask for their well being, and that each of them become increasingly enriched in their relationship with you, and ever more aware of your presence everywhere in time and space. We pray that being together opens their hearts and minds and leads them to increased compassion and love for all of your creation in our city and beyond. This we ask in the precious name of your son, Christ Jesus. Amen.

General Thanksgiving

Let us pray.

Accept, O God, our thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. Grant, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may, through your grace, be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honor and praise of your name, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; as we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessing

Dismissal

Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

Thanks be to God.

Announcements at St. Mary the Virgin

Welcome Visitors And Guests

June 20, 2021

Thank you for worshipping with us. The community of St. Mary's is gathering online in many days and ways throughout the week while we are sheltering-in-place. Strengthening our community and serving our neighbors is more important than ever in these challenging times. To learn more about the variety of our offerings, please email office@smvsf.org and we will stay in touch with you!

Please enjoy our online offerings from children, youth, and adults.

We look forward to traveling this journey of faith with you.

CELEBRATING REV. MARGUERITE'S MINISTRY AT ST. MARY'S! JUNE 20TH, 11AM, VIA ZOOM

Today, beginning at 11 a.m., we invite you to join us for a celebration of Rev. Marguerite's ministry with us. All those gathered will be given the opportunity to share their thoughts and appreciations with Rev. Marguerite, and we will pray for her and bless her at the end of the meeting. To allow the most people to participate during these unique times our celebration will be held via a Zoom meeting format HERE. Thank you for joining us in celebrating and sending forth Rev. Marguerite.

ST. MARY'S RETURNS TO INDOOR WORSHIP, SUNDAY JULY 4TH, 10 A.M.

We are incredibly excited to announce that St. Mary's will be returning to worship inside our sanctuary beginning Sunday, July 4th. Here are the important details.

- There will be ONE 10 a.m. service, which will also be live streamed to our website and our Facebook page. It will be available later on our website, Facebook page, and YouTube page.

- Per Diocesan guidelines, masks will be required for anyone attending the worship service. These guidelines will be reevaluated at the end of July.
- Singing by the congregation is allowed.
- All those involved in leading the worship service, with proof of vaccination, will be allowed to remove their face-masks when speaking and singing.
- Social distancing is not required for those vaccinated. The chapel side of the sanctuary will be spaced out to offer social distancing to those households with unvaccinated members.
- Registration WILL NOT be required.
- The Eucharist will continue to be offered in one kind only. There will be no wine or common cup.
- Singing by the congregation is allowed with masks on.

After 15 months, this is an exciting and much anticipated moment. We hope you will join us!

THANK YOU FAMILY SERVICE CHILDREN'S HOMILISTS!

For the last eight months, St. Mary's 9:00 a.m. virtual Family Service has been enriched by a group of Sunday school teachers and others who have animated God's Word through children's homilies targeted for the younger segment of our beloved community and beloved by adults, too. The grace that they brought to their ministry and their role in the spiritual development of children is indeed something to celebrate.

Those who have served as Children's homilists are warmly invited to join the 9:00 a.m. virtual Family Service on Sunday, June 20 for a special thank you for their contribution in making the Family Services a special part of St. Mary's Sunday morning experience.

RE-WATCH THE CHILDREN & YOUTH CHOIRS MUSICAL

If you missed or want to re-watch the Children & Youth Choirs Musical from June 6, you can view it now HERE.

During the pandemic, we have all been confronted with illness, death, healing, long-term suffering and constriction. Faith has been important to many of us to get us through, yet we have had to look at hard issues, hard questions and uncertainties. For those we lost there has been tremendous grief, for those surviving without lingering problems, there is much cause to celebrate.

The healings of Jesus 2,000 years ago give pause and much food for thought. This musical explores the stories of those who were healed or had loved ones healed by Jesus. It imagines their emotional reactions and new life through the eyes of our present times with tenderness, wonder, humor, and awe. Music is varied from newly composed songs, familiar tunes, hymns, dance, and varied elements of rap.

MID-YEAR MINISTRY CELEBRATION AND PARISH CHECK-IN

We are celebrating all ministries at our mid-year check in at 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 27th. As a part of that celebration, we will be producing a booklet of ministry stories and pictures from the last year. There will also be time to ask questions about our common life together.

We are excited to celebrate and share with one another all the incredible ways that Christ's grace has manifested itself among us in this unique year!

To join the Mid-Year check-in, please click HERE.

ONGOING OPPORTUNITIES FOR WORSHIP DURING THE WEEK

Please visit our website HERE, at smvsf.org to see the breadth of our virtual worship opportunities.

9 A.M. FAMILY SERVICE ON ZOOM

St. Mary's warmly welcomes you to our virtual family worship service at 9 a.m. This week we will be celebrating our talented and creative Children's Homilists.

Our final two Family Services on Zoom will be held on June 20th and June 27th. After that we hope you will join us for the 10am Eucharist in the church, beginning Sunday, July 4th!

Please use this LINK to join the meeting on Zoom.

Here is a link to the Eastertide Songbook for the 9:00 zoom service. If you find it helpful, please print the booklet so that you can join us in song during our worship

And we hope that your family enjoyed the wonderful Choir Musical presented on June 6th.

YOUTH GROUP MISSION TRIP

The 2021 Youth Mission Trip to San Francisco will be taking place this week. Eleven teens and two adults will be volunteering in a variety of ways in a variety of San Francisco neighborhoods. Please hold them in prayer, and if you are interested in supporting the trip with a donation, please donate via the church website or email Mike (mike@smvsf.org).
